

EARLY INTERVENTION COURSE (SCH 259)

Conflict Resolution

FOR 5TH-6TH GRADE

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Conflict Resolution Early Intervention course was created with student-adult conflicts in mind. The course material explores the emotional hierarchy of needs, and how unfulfilled emotional and social needs can lead to disruptive behavior in both youth and adults. The course also focuses on the importance of developing positive relationships with caregivers, and how adults can become a coach or mentor for youth.
